Expert author team is a family of modern physicians who share a passion for the rapidly growing field of holistic and integrative health. An eBook version is included with print purchase. content, make notes and highlights, and have content read aloud. This most unusual book looks at the newfound obsession driving people of all classes, countries and age groups - 'the asocial networking' - a must-do mode of entry into a new social order. If not adopted and mastered quickly, will it cause us to miss out on one of the greatest forms of modern human experience? It is also interesting and ironical to see ourselves socializing with the help of gadgets when we could actually step forward and socialize with the person standing next to us. For the benefit of those who exhibit their social lives online, this book offers little tricks of the trade to master the art of networking and garner tangible gains in the real world. The author discusses our vulnerabilities and weaknesses, which are often reflected in the way we socialize on the web. Some people have, however, mastered the art of masking their inhibitions - has this made them desirable and irresistible in both the electronic and real worlds? The ephemeral nature of our fantasy of socializing online, also poses the danger of obsolescence to the current rulers of social networking, while presenting an open window of opportunity to any innovative and enterprising entrepreneur who can better our societal experiences. The author attempts to look into the future of mankind and its changing priorities, through the future of social networking. The reader is taken on a mind-boggling and nerve-crackling tour of the virtual world of networking, stopping only to expose the vulnerability of the human mind. An anthology of essays and occasional pieces, written over a period of 24 years. Ushi Kak's pieces have appeared on the editorial pages of national newspapers like The Times of India and The Indian Express and in some leading news magazines like Outlook. She has a blog on WordPress under the pseudonym kashpundit, a name chosen to indicate her provenance and her penchant for puns and wordplay. _____ "Funny, sad, and often eye-opening, these pieces are an entertaining read." - Shashi Tharoor, Member Parliament, Author "Often hilarious, always mischievous but never malicious this is an enjoyable read for even the most staid ... And a repeated heartbeat in this wonderland is the pathos of the human spirit symbolized by the joy and the sorrow of what has become of Ushi's homeland, Kashmir. An engaging read, an experience!" - Wajahat Habibullah, Former Chief Information Commissioner, Government of India "Ushi Kak serves up a delightful soufflé combining humour and sensitivity with which to entice the literary palate. Bon appetite! Cheers." - Jug Suraiya, Satirist and former Associate Editor of The Times of India

The rise and fall of civilizations explicitly show human outreach and their unending efforts to make human life happy, even in the most perilous situations and predicaments. In the tumultuous development of the human race, the tides of time failed to slow down humanity's courage to continuously battle for happiness and for a progressive life. Every struggle begins for happiness, persists until its achievement, and forever lives in its maintenance. It is a lifelong, consistent process. From the smallest challenges to the waves of terrible conditions, human perseverance in search of happiness is undeterred. However, each endeavor for being happy demands different life skills and encapsulates lifelong experiences. This book investigates whether life skills play a pivotal role in ascertaining and enhancing happiness in human life. It attempts to determine whether or not people can experience happiness by learning these life skills as a concept of lifelong learning and aims to explore the key to happiness. 2020 - When the year throws two lemons at you, what do you do? Think of what you can make. A sweet sorbet to comfort you on a hot, summer afternoon? A spicy pickle to relish with a meal? Or would you cut it into bits, sprinkle spicy salt on it and keep in your pocket to lick it and to share it with friends? This year, like a 'gondhoraj nimbu', is uniquely fragrant, pungent and sharp, exceptional if you slow down to savour it and, in spite of the thorns, very humbling in life experiences. Scripted in this book are the tales of men and women who struggled, partied, connived, loved, laughed, fought and cried but eventually emerged as winners, with hope and positivity, during the time they faced an adversity, be it a virus or a war. Will the old man hang himself? Who is the young Krishna who had come to help? Who has stolen the emerald necklace? And was Madam killed for that? A masterpiece painting is replaced in a party. Was it by the guests, friends or invitees? Will Shankar ever find his home with a promise of peace? How much must the migrant couple walk to reach the village? Will they get help? The queen is betrayed by her kinmen. What's the price of escape? Crisis in mid-air. Can the air hostess trust the men she thinks are brave? A teenage girl's diary of 1971, living with war and the enemy versus the invisible one. Life, like 2020, tests us. The secret is to stop to smell the flowers and smile at those around. In your story of being handed lemons, remember to add a dash of lime to make the cocktail tangy! Enjoy reading the stories, each set in a different mood and locale. While the lockdown may keep us indoors, our can thoughts fly freely everywhere! On various diseases and health problems, and their treatment through home remedies. On home remedies.
