Miraculous Encounters Aug 01 2021 Jacopo Carucci, known as Pontorno (1494–1557), was the leading painter in mid sixteenth-century Florence and one of the most original and extraordinary Mannerist artists. His extremely personal style was much influenced by Michelangelo, though he also drew from northern art, especially the work of Albrecht Dürer. This catalogue brings together a small but important group of preparatory drawings and finished paintings that center on Pontorno ' s great masterpiece, The Visitation, one of the most moving and mesmerizing works by the artist. The Visitation represents the intense moment of encounter between the Virgin Mary and her cousin

Elizabeth, who reveal to each other that both are pregnant. The painting is presented—for the first time—along with its highly finished preparatory drawing, which is squared for transfer to the larger surface of the panel. The combination of rigorous research and gorgeous reproductions reveals the painter ’ s creative process as never before. Other acclaimed paintings, including Portrait of a Halberdier and Portrait of Carlo Neroni, will also be shown alongside their preparatory drawings. Readers will encounter Pontormo both as a religious painter and a painter of portraits, in this original and nuanced account of the celebrated artist.

Bird's Eyes Face Book and Wonder Land May 30 2021

These pages trace our art journey since Jacob began drawing portraits. In his intermediate painting class, he began using his face to draw a composite portrait. Jacob made four of them very fast, in one weekend. Seeing his love for making these artworks, I joined forces to help expand his work. In Jacob's art and in this book, the idea is that we are on top of the world in our imaginations. We are like a bird flying anywhere, catching pictures and searching the mind maps of our imaginations. Music inspired some of this art, and so did Jacob's collections. He explored religious beliefs, buildings and legendary stories. Jacob can't speak out loud but through his hand he is a storyteller. I invite you to travel with Jacob inside his imagination, and perch on his bird's eye view of the world.
